Or travel into the countryside to Balaklava, captured without bloodshed by the British in 1854.

YALTA, UKRAINE

BATUMI, GEORGIA

Batumi is a seaside city situated on the semitropical coast of the Black Sea near the Turkish border. Enjoy a stroll on the tree-lined boulevard that stretches along the beach front, or meander the leafy city streets surrounded by charming 19th-century buildings.

TRABZON, TURKEY

Backed by the steep Pontic Mountains and surrounded by countryside blanketed with dense forests and subtropical flowers, Trabzon is located in a beautiful setting on the Black Sea. The name Trabzon comes from the Greek "trapezous" meaning table, a reference to the flat hilltop that the walled Old City occupies. While there are plenty of historical buildings in town, in particular Hagia Sophia and Saint Eugene churches, the most stunning religious site is the nearby Sumela Monastery, which dates to the 6th century.

SINOP, TURKEY

Turkey's northernmost city, Sinop sits on the neck of a peninsula on the Black Sea. In the 7th century B.C., Sinop was a prosperous Greek colony, and throughout antiquity, a citadel to the south and a fortified wall on the seaside protected the city. You can still see those defenses and the ruins of the Temple of Serapis. The 13th-century Aladdin Mosque and the Byzantine-period Balatlar Church in the city's Ada Quarter are also outstanding. Ancient coins, vases, and jewelry are still being unearthed around Sinop, many of which end up in the city's Archaeological Museum.

ISTANBUL, TURKEY

Indulge your eyes and senses in this magnificent city astride two continents. Visit beautiful Topkapi Palace, the awesome St. Sophia and the impressive Blue Mosque. Cruise the Bosphorus to see the city and its surroundings from another perspective. Visit one of the many museums, or stroll through the spice market and the famous Grand Bazaar.

In each port of call you may select from a variety of optional shore excursions for an additional charge, some of which are referenced in the descriptions above.
