Ports of Call

NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND

This renowned New England city is home to magnificent coastal scenery, spectacular architecture, and a thriving waterfront. Famous for its Gilded Age mansions, many of which are open for tours, such as the Vanderbilt's opulent Marble House, Newport remains a charming, well-heeled resort city. For a different view of the mansions, take the scenic Cliff Walk. The rocky shoreline is also dotted with lighthouses, including the granite Castle Hill.

ROCKLAND/CAMDEN, MAINE

With 20,000 square feet of gallery space and over 10,000 works in the collection, there is always something new on view at the Farnsworth Art Museum in Rockland. Down the road in Camden, a short drive up Mount Battie offers an amazing view of picturesque Penobscot Bay. Another great find is Camden's town park, designed by the legendary landscape architect Frederick Law Olmsted, the visionary behind New York City's Central Park. Be on the lookout for more than a dozen authentic 19th-century schooners sailing Penobscot Bay, many of which are National Historic Landmarks.

BAR HARBOR, MAINE

Established in the 19th century as New England's premier summer resort city, Bar Harbor was originally called Eden. It's still a seaside paradise, especially for lovers of the outdoors. Hike through Acadia National Park, behold the sweeping vistas from Cadillac Mountain, and watch for migrating humpback whales. The Wabanaki Indian exhibits in the Abbe Museum are also fascinating.

SAINT JOHN, NEW BRUNSWICK

Explore Canada's oldest continuing museum, the New Brunswick Museum, where displays include the skeletal remains of a rare North Atlantic right whale. Saint John is also known for the bizarre Reversing Falls, a daily tidal phenomenon so severe it reverses the flow of the Saint John River. Birders will enjoy serene Irving Nature Park.

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA

Scottish traditions are alive and well throughout Nova Scotia (which means New Scotland in Latin), especially in the provincial capital of Halifax, where bagpipes are commonly played in the pubs. The sea also helped define Halifax, which was founded in 1749, as you will discover in the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic, which holds a massive collection of ship models, portraits, and logs. Another highlight is Pier 21, the Canadian equivalent of New York's Ellis Island. Today, much of the action centers around Halifax's restored waterfront, a hub for entertainment, restaurants, and shops.

SYDNEY, NOVA SCOTIA

Historic Sydney boasts several landmarks from the late 1700s, such as the colonial Cossit House and the Jost House, which features an unusual beehive bake-oven. St. Patrick's, the city's oldest Catholic Church, doubles as a fascinating museum.

CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

In 1864, Charlottetown hosted a conference that launched the idea of uniting the British lands in North America into a Canadian Confederation, and many of the city's present attractions contributed to that momentous event. Drop by popular Province House to see the conference site, and then learn more about the fascinating inception of Canada at Founders Hall. You may also wish to venture beyond the town limits into the captivating countryside that inspired the 1908 bestseller "Anne of Green Gables." The scenic landscape is amazingly diverse, with rolling farmland, sandstone cliffs, and dense evergreen forests.

CORNER BROOK, NEWFOUNDLAND

Start by taking in the breathtaking view from the monument honoring Captain James Cook, the first to map the area in 1767. More history awaits you in the Corner Brook Museum and its marine artifacts, forestry exhibits, and collections from aboriginal people.

QUEBEC CITY, QUEBEC

Enjoy Old World European charm without having to go to Europe, as sections of Quebec City could just as well have been lifted out of France. Elegant squares, a wonderful "joie de vivre" and the fact that 95% of the population speaks French all contribute mightily to Quebec City's authentic French atmosphere, especially in the winding cobbled streets of Vieux-Quebec (Old Town). Stand in the shadow of the city's high fortification wall. Tour the Parliament Buildings, which were inspired by the Louvre. Ride the funicular to Dufferin Terrace for a bird's-eye view of the St. Lawrence River and the city below, a UNESCO World Heritage site founded in 1608.

Shore excursions are not included. In each port of call you may select from a variety of optional shore excursions for an additional charge, some of which are referenced in the descriptions above.

Go Next will offer a unique collection of Oceania Cruises shore excursions; available for purchase approximately 4 months prior to departure.
