Ports of Call

PALMA DE MALLORCA, SPAIN

Explore this beautiful island beginning with the magnificent Cathedral and Bellver Castle. See the windmills and an impressive manor house in the verdant countryside. Discover the amazing natural wonders in the Drach Caves. And for romance, visit the former Carthusian Monastery in Valdemosa where George Sand and Chopin spent a winter.

VALENCIA, SPAIN

Spain's third largest city is home to the City of Arts and Sciences, which includes an impressive collection of attractions. Visit the Gothic city of Requena featuring perfectly preserved, 100-year-old wine cellars. In Lladro's City of Porcelain museum, explore the production facilities, or visit the National Ceramics Museum located in the former palace of nobility.

GRANADA (MOTRIL), SPAIN

Motril, located on a hill, at the foothills of Sierra de Lújar, is considered the capital of the Tropical Coast. Motril is your gateway to legendary Granada, the spell-binding capital of Moorish Spain and home to the beloved Moorish palace, the Alhambra.

FUNCHAL (MADEIRA), PORTUGAL

Breathtaking vistas await throughout this beautiful island. Take a cable car up to Monte for spectacular views of the Botanical Gardens and the charming town. Drive along the coast to a village where Winston Churchill painted seascapes or out to the stunning cliffs of Cabo Girão and enjoy a visit to a quaint fishing village.

SANTA CRUZ DE LA PALMA (CANARY ISLANDS), SPAIN

Locals call it "La Isla Bonita," and with such breathtaking mountains, plunging valleys, and sweet pine forests, it's no wonder why. Wander through the twisting streets of Santa Cruz, which are packed with traditional old houses, impressive Renaissance churches, and colonial mansions. Spend some time in Plaza de España and see its lovely 16th-century fountain, or head to the Iglesia de El Salvador, an impressive example of Renaissance architecture. Consider a visit to La Caldera de Taburiente National Park, site of the world's largest volcanic crater.

LANZAROTE (CANARY ISLANDS), SPAIN

The small volcanic island of Lanzarote, just 79 miles off the west coast of Africa, is a land of contrasts where you can explore some of the world's most spectacular caves in the morning and relax on a white sand beach in the afternoon. Arrecife is the capital of Lanzarote, the fourth largest of the Canary Islands. Arrecife is a modern town, yet it still retains much of its old charm, with palm-lined promenades and two small forts.

AGADIR, MOROCCO

Visit the 16th-century Kasbah atop the hill with its expansive views over the Atlantic, the new city and the beaches. Visit a Berber village and stroll through its alleys and browse in its souks. Or head off towards the Souss Valley with the Atlas Mountains as a backdrop to Taroudant, an ancient fortress town.

CASABLANCA, MOROCCO

Morocco's economic capital and most modern city, Casablanca is endowed with a scenic coastline on the Atlantic Ocean. Stroll through the narrow streets of the old medina and visit the spice market. Admire the Hassan II Mosque built beside the sea. Or journey inland to Rabat, a fascinating old city of kasbahs, souks and Moroccan tradition.

SEVILLE (CÁDIZ), SPAIN

Spend a fabulous day in Seville visiting the magnificent cathedral, climbing the famed Giralda Tower and strolling through the gorgeous Alcazar and its gardens. See the ceramic-encrusted Plaza de España and stroll through the alleys of Barrio de Santa Cruz. Or explore the Andalusian wine country and Jerez, the home of sherry. Don't miss the charm of Cádiz with its gracious squares, flower-filled parks on the city bastions and its bustling markets.

LISBON, PORTUGAL

Visit the ornate Belem Tower and Jeronimos Monastery and stroll the narrow, winding streets of the charming Alfama district. Enjoy marvelous old Sintra, a royal country retreat, and Cascais, a beautiful seaside resort. Explore medieval Obidos or make a pilgrimage to Fatima where the Virgin Mary appeared repeatedly to three shepherd children in 1917.

In each port of call you may select from a variety of optional shore excursions for an additional charge, some of which are referenced in the descriptions above.
